Air Quality Forecast for the UK

Issued by the Met Office

Today: After a dry and frosty start to Christmas Day for many areas, gradually milder Atlantic air and strengthening winds will spread across the UK. This will maintain Low levels of air pollution.

Tomorrow: The wind will continue to strengthen across the UK through Boxing Day as Storm Bella develops, bringing widespread gales by late evening and retaining Low levels of air pollution.

Outlook: Showers or longer spells of rain for many areas, and the wind easing, especially across eastern areas. Generally Low levels of air pollution will continue.
